

CAHS Officers & Committee 2011-2012

Chairman	Post vacant
Vice-Chairman	Aileen Anderson	01285-657110
Hon Treasurer & Membership Secretary	Peter Watkins	01285-861614
Programme Secretary	Alan Strickland	01285-885734
Secretary	Post vacant
Committee	Florence Beestestone Robert Lloyd-Sweet David Miles Ann Stevenson Sylvia Warman Posts vacant
Non-Committee Members:-
Archivist/Hon Editor	David Viner
Hon Auditor	Phillip Twentyman
HODS Co-ordinator	Florence Beestestone	01285-644354

CAHS Subscription Rates

Single membership	£8.00 (£7 by standing order)
Joint membership (Same address)	£12.00 (£10 by standing order)

All Lectures are free to Members – Visitors fee £5

CIRENCESTER ARCHAEOLOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Lectures & Meetings Programme

Autumn 2011 – Summer 2012

The Society is a registered charity – No 287289

Website – www.cirenhistory.org.uk

All lectures are held at the Ashcroft Centre, Ashcroft Road, Cirencester commencing at 7.30pm unless otherwise stated (Contact programme secretary with any queries 01285-885734)

Thursday 8th September 2011

To mark the start of Heritage Open Days – 8th-11th September 2011

Archaeological Ironworking - Hector Cole

Hector Cole has an international reputation for the reconstruction of archaeological artefacts, using the same traditional materials and techniques as early smiths. A leading authority on Saxon swordsmiths, is regularly seen on TV demonstrating his skills. Many high quality commissions – including the gates at Highgrove House. Free Public Lecture

Wednesday 28th September 2011

Gloucester Malhouses – Amber Patrick

Amber Patrick is a leading expert in the history and design of malhouses. Often called upon as a specialist adviser by public and conservation groups. Amber has written widely on the subject.

Thursday 27th October 2011

Atkyn's Gloucestershire – The County's Landscape 300 years ago

Alan Pilbeam

Alan Pilbeam is a well known local historian and geographer. He has researched and studied the Gloucestershire landscape for many years, writing a number of books on the County.

Wednesday 23rd November 2011.

Medieval Hospitals – Charity, Hospitality, Healing.

Tim Porter

Tim Porter teaches and lectures on a wide range of subjects including music and medieval & anglo-saxon history. The story of the medieval hospitals, providing services for the poor and sick and their remains in the landscape today, will be a fascinating insight into this little known subject.

Wednesday 25th January 2012.

Gloucestershire's Underground Quarries – Arthur Price.

Arthur Price is a recognised expert in the geology of the stone trade, his research into the history of stone has made his knowledge invaluable to those sourcing matching stone for the repair of historic buildings. His book "Cheltenham Stone" provides a history of Cotswold stone quarrying.

Wednesday 22nd February 2012.

Annual Croome Lecture

Joint meeting with Cirencester Civic Society

Church Conservation & Repair in the 21st Century

Henry Russell OBE

Henry Russell is the current chairman of the Gloucester Diocesan Advisory Committee (a post held by Will Croome for many years) Henry Russell will explain how works and alterations to churches are now addressed in 2012.

Wednesday 14th March 2012.

Joint meeting with Cirencester Science & Technology Society

Early Settlers in the South -West: Exmoor's Hunter-Gatherers.

Dr Paula Gardiner

Dr Gardiner, lecturer at Bristol University department of Archeology and Anthropology, has carried out extensive field research into Mesolithic and Neolithic sites in the south - west of England, with excavations at three Mesolithic sites in Somerset.

Wednesday 21st March 2012.

Cotswold Archaeology Annual Lecture.

Venue – Bingham Hall

The Speaker will be Dr Simon Esmonde-Cleary from Birmingham University, a specialist in Roman Archaeology. Further details will be published on the CAHS website when available

Wednesday 25th April 2012.

The Archaeology of the Worringtonon – Sapperton Pipeline.

Mark Brett

Mark Brett is a Senior Project Officer with Cotswold Archaeology. The recently installed 28 mile gas pipeline was closely monitored and the archaeology along the route carefully investigated. Mark will be explaining how this was done and what was uncovered.

Wednesday 23rd May 2012.

AGM followed by Lecture.

Museums - Stuff of History & History of Stuff – David Mullin

David Mullin will talk about museum artefact collections from his experience as Documentation and Collections Officer at the Museum in the Park Stroud.